Please join us on Saturday evening, November 22!

Rhode Island Aviation Hall of Fame (RIAHOF) is a volunteer-driven non-profit group dedicated to identifying, honoring and perpetuating the memory of those individuals who have contributed to Rhode Island's rich aviation history.

Over eleven years we have inducted 60 individuals and one entire family (the Allen family of balloonists/aeronauts). We have also given special recognition awards to 19 individuals along with the four WWII WASP (Women Air Service Pilots) from RI and the 20 or so Tuskegee Airmen hailing from this state.

Few people know just how rich and varied our aviation history is, and just how many wonderfully skilled and talented contributors to the aerial age have been born in Rhode Island, were educated here, lived here for a portion of their lives or performed some great aviation-related act or service here.

Help us perpetuate this message.
